2 Accessing your super

Your super is designed to provide for you in retirement, so you generally cannot access it until you've met what's known as a condition of release. Let us know which of the following applies to you:

- I have reached my preservation age and permanently retired, and do not intend to ever work again 10 hours or more per week in the future.²
- I have ended my employment arrangement on or after age 60.
- I am aged 65 or over.
- I have met a condition of release which the Trustee has previously approved.
- I am withdrawing an amount from the unrestricted non-preserved part of my super (the part of my super I can access).

Last day of work (if applicable) (dd/mm/yyyy)

Employer name

¹ If your name has changed and you work for the Queensland Government or default employer, let your payroll office know and they will let us know. Otherwise, please send us a certified copy of either a marriage certificate or other legal change of name document.

² This declaration relates to your intention now and does not mean you could not return to part-time or full-time work if your circumstances change in the future.

OR

I want to withdraw all of my benefit. I understand this means my account will be closed and any insurance cover cancelled.

If you intend to claim a tax deduction for non-concessional contributions paid to your QSuper account, it's important to request and finalise the tax deduction, before this money is transferred out of your Accumulation account.

For more information on claiming a tax deduction, including eligibility and how to claim, please refer to our Notice of Intent to Claim or Vary a Deduction for Personal Super Contributions form and factsheet, available at qsuper.qld.gov.au/forms or call us on 1300 360 750 to discuss your options.

4 Withdrawing from your investments

If you are not withdrawing all your super, you need to tell us how we should withdraw money from your investment options. If you do not specify a preference, we will withdraw money proportionally from all your investment options.

6 Proving your identity

You can prove your identity by either:

Option 1 – Electronic identification

(not available for people currently living overseas)

To prove your identity electronically, please provide us with your driver's licence or passport number.

From here, we will provide your name, address, and date of birth to a credit reporting agency (CRA) to check if your personal information matches your credit information file with the CRA. This will allow us to verify you under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 before making your payment. It doesn't give us access to other information about you, our request won't be recorded on your credit information file, and the CRA can't use it for anything else. If we cannot identify you in this way, we will write to you advising the name of the CRA and another way to verify your identity.

I confirm that I am authorised to provide the personal details presented and I consent to my information being checked with the document issuer or official record holder.

Driver's licence number

If using your driver's licence as proof of identity, please also give us your driver's licence card number, which is different to your licence number.
