

State or Police Account Preservation Claim

When to use this form

If you have a preserved State or Police account, please fill out this form if you would like to transfer your benefit to an Accumulation account, make a withdrawal, or transfer your benefit to another complying super fund. If you want to open a Transition to Retirement Income account, Retirement Income account, or purchase a Lifetime Pension, you will also need to complete the Open an Income Account and/or Lifetime Pension form, at the back of the Product Disclosure Statement for Income Account and Lifetime Pension, available at qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds

Important information

If you are under age 55 and choose to withdraw or transfer your cash value, you will lose employer contributions that are over the minimum required under Commonwealth superannuation legislation. To keep your full benefit, you need to keep it in your State or Police account until age 55 or transfer it to a QSuper Accumulation account. If you transfer your account to a QSuper Accumulation account before age 55 none of your benefit can be withdrawn as cash until retirement, including your personal contributions and interest paid before 1 July 1999.

Before completing this claim form, please read the Product Disclosure Statement for Accumulation Account, Product Disclosure Statement for Income Account and Lifetime Pension, State Account Guide, Police Account Guide (whichever applies to your situation), the Tax Explanation factsheet, and the Proving Your Identity factsheet.

Please complete in BLOCK letters, using blue or black ink.

¹ If your name has changed and you work for the Queensland Government or default employer, let your payroll office know and they will then let us know. Otherwise, please send us a certified copy of either a marriage certificate or other legal change of name document.

2 Providing your tax file number

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, your super fund is authorised to collect your tax file number (TFN), which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. If you transfer your super to another fund we may disclose your TFN to the other super provider unless you tell us not to in writing. It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. However, providing your TFN to your super fund will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- Your super fund will be able to accept all types of contributions to your account(s)
- The tax on employer contributions to your super account(s) will not increase
- Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your super benefits
- It will make it much easier to trace different super accounts in your name so that you receive all your super benefits when you retire.

Your TFN

You do not need to provide your TFN again, if you have already given it to us.

3 Reason for withdrawal or transfer

Withdrawal option – I have reached age 55 and want to transfer my State or Police account, and/or make a cash withdrawal.

Preserved option – I am under age 55 and want to:

 withdraw my cash value (your cash value is your personal contributions and interest paid before
 1 July 1999)

OR

..... transfer my State or Police account to a QSuper
 Accumulation account.

Please note: If you are under age 55 and choose to withdraw or transfer your cash value, you will lose employer contributions that are over the minimum required under Commonwealth superannuation legislation. If you are under age 55 and choose to transfer your State or Police account to a QSuper Accumulation account, none of your benefit can be withdrawn as cash until retirement, including your personal contributions and interest paid before 1 July 1999. You can find more information about this in our State Account Guide, or Police Account Guide, available on our website at qsuper.qld.gov.au or call us to request a copy, free of charge

4 Withdrawal options

Option 1 – Transfer to an Accumulation account

You should choose this option if you want to transfer some or all of your State or Police account to a QSuper Accumulation account. If you are under age 55, it must be all of your account. If you have reached age 55, it can be all or some of your account.

If you are not making a withdrawal or transferring to an SMSF, please go to section 5.

5 Proving your identity

You can prove your identity by either:

Option 1 – Electronic identification

(not available for people currently living overseas)

To prove your identity electronically, please provide us with your driver's licence or passport number.

From here, QSuper will provide your name, address and date of birth to a credit reporting agency (CRA) to check if your personal information matches your credit information file with the CRA. This will allow us to verify you under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 before making your payment. It doesn't give us access to other information about you, our request won't be recorded on your credit information file, and the CRA can't use it for anything else. If we cannot identify you in this way, we will write to you advising the name of the CRA and another way to verify your identity.

I confirm that I am authorised to provide the personal details presented and I consent to my information being checked with the document issuer or official record holder.

Driver's licence number

State of issue

If using your driver's licence as proof of identity, please also give us your driver's licence card number, which is different to your licence number.

Option 2 – Certified identification

You can post, email, or fax us certified copies of your identification document as explained in the Proving Your Identity factsheet on our website.

6 Declaration and authorisation

- I confirm I am the person named on this form, or have a power of attorney to act on the member's behalf.²
- The information I have given on this form is true and correct.
- I understand that if there is a surcharge debt I need to pay on my benefit, QSuper will deduct this before my money is withdrawn.
