2 Accessing your super

Your super is designed to provide for you in retirement, so you generally cannot access it until you've met what's known as a condition of release. Let us know which of the following applies to you:

I have reached my preservation age and permanently retired, and do not intend to ever work again 10 hours or more per week in the future.²

I have ended my employment arrangement on or after age 60.

I am aged 65 or over.

I have met a condition of release which QSuper has previously approved.

I am withdrawing an amount from the unrestricted non-preserved part of my super (the part of my super I can access).

Last day of work (if applicable) (dd/mm/yyyy)

Employer name

¹ If your name has changed and you work for the Queensland Government or default employer, let your payroll office know and they will let us know. Otherwise, please send us a certified copy of either a marriage certificate or other legal change of name document.

² This declaration relates to your intention now and does not mean you could not return to part-time or full-time work if your circumstances change in the future.

3 Withdrawal amount

I want to withdraw (net)³

OR

(You will need to keep a minimum of $10,000 in your QSuper Accumulation account when you make a lump sum withdrawal. This minimum balance will apply unless you are withdrawing all of your funds and closing your account, or if you have money in Self Invest. To keep Self Invest open, you need a minimum of $10,000 invested in one or more of the other QSuper investment options through your Accumulation account.)

I want to withdraw all of my benefit. I understand this means my account will be closed and any insurance cover cancelled.

If you intend to claim a tax deduction for non-concessional contributions paid to your QSuper account, it's important to request and finalise the tax deduction, before this money is transferred out of your Accumulation account.

For more information on claiming a tax deduction, including eligibility and how to claim, please refer to our Notice of Intent to Claim or Vary a Deduction for Personal Super Contributions form and factsheet, available at qsuper.qld.gov.au/forms or call us on 1300 360 750 to discuss your options.

4 Withdrawing from your investments

If you are not withdrawing all your super, you need to tell us how we should withdraw money from your investment options. If you do not specify a preference, we will withdraw money proportionally from all your investment options.

5 Receiving your payment

We can only make payments into an Australian bank, credit union, or building society account in your name or a joint name. This means we cannot make payments into a business, trust, or loan account.

You should know that if you provide incorrect details, there could be a delay in your payment or a loss of interest, and we cannot accept responsibility for this.

6 Providing your tax file number (TFN)

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, your super fund is authorised to collect your tax file number (TFN), which will only be used for lawful purposes.

These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. If you transfer your super to another fund we may disclose your TFN to the other super provider unless you tell us not to in writing. It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. However, providing your TFN to your super fund will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- Your super fund will be able to accept all types of contributions to your account(s)
- The tax on employer contributions to your super account(s) will not increase
- Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your super benefits
- It will make it much easier to trace different super accounts in your name so that you receive all your super benefits when you retire.

Your TFN

If we have already have your TFN, you do not need to give it to us again.

7 Proving your identity

You can prove your identity by either:

Option 1 – Electronic identification

(not available for people currently living overseas)

To prove your identity electronically, please provide us with your driver licence or passport number.

From here, QSuper will provide your name, address, and date of birth to a credit reporting agency (CRA) to check if your personal information matches your credit information file with the CRA. This will allow us to verify you under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 before making your payment. It doesn't give us access to other information about you, our request won't be recorded on your credit information file, and the CRA can't use it for anything else. If we cannot identify you in this way, we will write to you advising the name of the CRA and another way to verify your identity.

I confirm that I am authorised to provide the personal details presented and I consent to my information being checked with the document issuer or official record holder.

Driver licence number

State of issue

If using your driver's licence as proof of identity, please also give us your driver's licence card number, which is different to your licence number.

Option 2 – Certified identification

You can post, email, or fax us certified copies of your identification document as explained in the Proving Your Identity factsheet on our website.

8 What you need to attach to your form

If you told us in section 7 that you want to prove your identity via the paper method, please attach certified copies of your identification documents.

If we know you by another name, please attach certified copies of your marriage certificate or another legal change of name document.

If you're signing as a power of attorney and you have not already given us a certified copy of your power of attorney documentation, please attach it to this form. Make sure you attach certified copies of both your and the member's identification documents.

For more information on how to get certified copies, or what you need to provide to confirm your identity, read our Proving Your Identity factsheet at qsuper.qld.gov.au/factsheets

9 Declaration and authorisation

- I understand that if I have a surcharge debt, QSuper will deduct this before making the payment
- If I am withdrawing all my super from my Accumulation account, I understand that I will not be able to claim a tax deduction on contributions paid to QSuper (or vary a deduction I claimed in a previous notice), my account will be closed and all my insurance will cease.
- I am the person named on this form, or have a power of attorney to act on the member's behalf.
- The information I have given on this form is true and correct.
